Reading Text

The Job that I love

I have lunch at two in the afternoon, usually in a restaurant while I check my emails and do some computer's work. Then I go and pick up two special dogs that are sick and need to walk very slowly. I take them around the neighborhood where they can see people and say hello to other dog friends. In the afternoon I go to the gym and play tennis or swim. At night I go home and relax reading a book or watching movies with Cody, my dog.

Cody is with me during my working hours, so he gets plenty of exercise. I love animals, and I would love to have more than one pet, but then I would have to quit my job, which I love!
